*Independence
Sinfonia*

THE INDEPENDENCE SINFONIA was founded in 1995 by musicians from throughout the Philadelphia area. Our members include talented players from all walks of life, including professional musicians, music teachers, professors, lawyers, accountants and scientists, all of whom are united in their love of music. Our mission is to support and enhance the musical life of our communities through the presentation of an annual program series, both for our own enjoyment and for the enjoyment of our audiences. We are a volunteer organization made up of serious instrumental musicians who seek to develop and grow as an ensemble through regular rehearsal and performance of the orchestral repertoire.

OUR MUSIC DIRECTOR, DANIEL MATSUKAWA, is also the Principal Bassoonist of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Born in Argentina to Japanese parents, he moved with his family to New York City at age three and began studying the bassoon at age 13. Mr. Matsukawa studied at Juilliard for two years before attending the Curtis Institute of Music.

Matsukawa studied conducting privately with Otto Werner Mueller, former head of the Conducting Department at Curtis. His orchestral conducting debut took place in Japan in 2009 at the Pacific Music Festival's 20th anniversary concert, garnering Maestro Christoph Eschenbach's appraisal of Mr. Matsukawa as a "new conducting star".

Since then, he has been invited back to conduct in Japan every year including a tour of concerts in Sapporo, Hamamatsu and Tokyo receiving glowing reviews. He regularly conducts the PMF Link Up Concerts, based on the partnership program with Carnegie Hall and has also conducted concerts at the Curtis Institute of Music. Mr. Matsukawa made his American professional conducting debut with the Virginia Symphony Orchestra in the 2016-17 season.
